

SANTE Kick-off Meeting

March 5 - 7, 2010 in Copenhagen

The Sante Project Framework

Jacob Schouenborg
Secretary General, ISCA

SANTE Kick-off Meeting

March 5 - 7, 2010 in Copenhagen

What does the project mean for you?

- International possibilities to share, to learn and to develop your own organisation and its offers
 - Very large influence on the topics you want to work with
 - Large diverse partner group to work with – and more could be added
 - Practical support from the ISCA secretariat to organise meetings
 - All costs for participation covered. You just have to invest your time!

SANTE Kick-off Meeting

March 5 - 7, 2010 in Copenhagen

What does the project mean for you?

Specifically:

- Project Kick Off
- 2 Political Forums (one is taking place parallel to this meeting)
- 2 Thematic Seminars
- SANTE Exchanges – YOU define with whom and about what
- European Sport for All Congress (Frankfurt 20-24 October 2010)
- Project Closing
- Project Materials, including translations

SANTE Kick-off Meeting

March 5 - 7, 2010 in Copenhagen

What does the project mean for you?

Financially:

- Book flights via SANTE Travel Agency
- ISCA organised events will have hotels and meals automatically covered
- SANTE exchanges will have (rather good) daily subsistence payment to cover accommodation and meals. etc.

SANTE Kick-off Meeting

March 5 - 7, 2010 in Copenhagen

What does my organisation need to do?

- Identify the right persons to join the activities. Make sure they have the time
- Define how to use the inspiration from the project in your own organisation
- Disseminate SANTE results in your organisation and via your communication channels
- Be ready to share your own good practises with others
- Be in regular touch with ISCA as project coordinator
- (co)organise one or two SANTE Exchange(s)
- Let ISCA know what you gained!