MOVING PEOPLE

The International Sport and Culture Association (ISCA) is a global platform open to organizations working within the field of Sport for All, recreational sports and physical activity. Created in 1990, ISCA is today a global actor closely cooperating with its 130 member organizations, international NGOs, and public and private sector stakeholders. Its 40 million individual members from 65 countries represent a diverse group of people active within youth, sport and cultural activities.

WE BUILD INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS BETWEEN PEOPLE, CULTURES, ORGANIZATIONS AND SERVICES. SEEING SPORT AS CULTURE OF MOVEMENT, WE DEVELOP OPPORTUNITIES FOR EXCHANGE, INSPIRATION AND ACTION TO INDUCE SOCIAL CHANGE.

WORKING HIGHLIGHTS 2010-2011

Sante Europe Network of Europe

Sport and Cultures in Dialogue

European Youth Network of Education through Sport

Enhancing cross-sector cooperation in sport and health enhancing physical activity. Building national and international partnerships between sport and patients' associations, municipalities, industry stakeholders, schools and policy makers.

Multilateral cooperation facilitating a trans-national dialogue between citizens from EU member states and citizens from candidate and potential candidate countries in South East Europe, focusing on the contributions of sport and sport organizations in developing a strong civil society.

A multi-measure project featuring education through sport seminars and field activities strengthening the networking of the young people active in youth and sport organizations.
