

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

MARTIN CHLUMSKÝ

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Martin Chlumský has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

DORTE WITH CHRISTIANSEN

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Dorte With CHRISTIANSEN has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

CATHERINE COUCHMAN

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Catherine Couchman has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDENCE

MARK LOWTHER

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Mark Lowther has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

GIUSEPPE RUSSO

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Giuseppe Russo has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

ANNE MALLURET

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Anne Malluret has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDENCE

PATRICK MCGRATTAN

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Patrick McGrattan has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDENCE

CORMAC MCCANN

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Cormac McCann has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDENCE

MARIAN MURPHY

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Marian Murphy has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDENCE

ANTONIO LLOP PADILLA

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Antonio Llop Padilla has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

HUGO FERNANDEZ LLORT

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

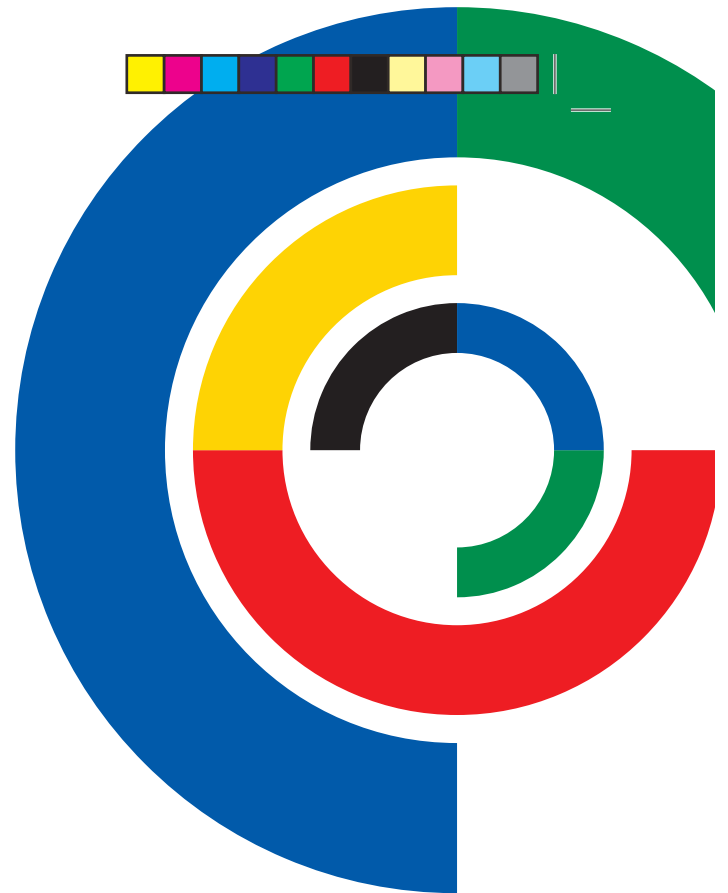

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Hugo Fernandez Llort has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

ANTONIO BORGOGNI

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Antonio Borgogni has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

CHRISTOPH GEISSLER

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

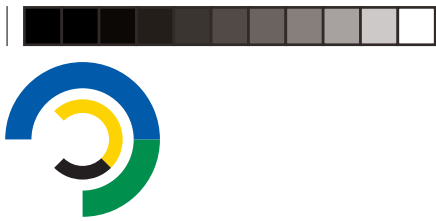

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Christoph Geissler has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

MIHAI ANDROHOVICI

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Mihai Androhovici has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

MARIA PAULA BIGNAMI

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

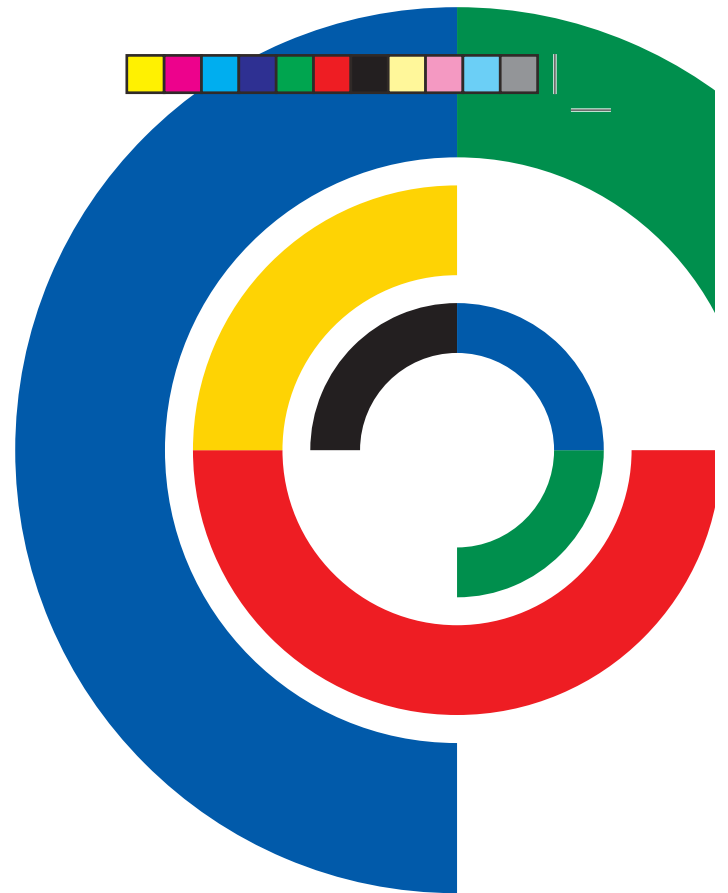

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Maria Paula Bignami has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDENCE

PAOLO LAMBERTINI

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Paolo Lambertini has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

SIMONE DIGENNARO

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Simone Digennaro has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

HENRIETT VASS

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Henriett Vass has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

JUDIT FARKAS

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Judit Farkas has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDENCE

VAHUR MAE

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Vahur Mae has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN GRASSROOTS SPORT

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

TARMO VOLT

for participating in the Good Governance in Grassroots Sport (GGGS) Education programme in the period September 2012 – January 2013 and for developing good governance in grassroots sport organisations in Europe.

MOGENS KIRKEBY, ISCA PRESIDENT

The GGGS project is receiving support from the European Commission, Education and Culture DG, under the "2011 Preparatory Action in the Field of Sport".

Skills which Tarmo Volt has acquired:

- A knowledge base in good governance in grassroots sport
- Knowledge how the four fundamental principles of good governance are demonstrated within a successful daily life of association and association's board.
- Knowledge of good examples to be used in own organisation following Good Governance in grassroots sport principles
- Knowledge how to encourage and develop national/regional/local activities in good governance in grassroots sport and actively promote the good governance in sport on the national level
- Knowledge base of organisation, management and quality assurance of promotion of good governance in grassroots sport in the main topics:
 - Focus on the policy: External challenges and opportunities, Stakeholder analysis and management, Strategic vision and direction
 - Focus on the people: Leadership qualities and skills, Guiding values, Organisational learning
 - Focus on the process: Financial planning and control, Risk analysis and management, Quality systems and Performance indicators
- Knowledge of how to prepare the future actions in promotion of good governance in grassroots sport